Alissha joins us after managing a 17-story high-rise condominium near the downtown area for Towne Properties over the last 3 years. At NAI Ohio Equities she will manage medical office buildings. Alissha has nearly 23 years in property management, managing luxury, class-A portfolios in residential and mixed use. She has worked in training and development, sales and operations and private consulting for several firms in the area. She enjoys managing commercial systems and complex projects and delivering exceptional service to clients big or small. A native of Columbus, Alissha and her husband Brian have five children ages 7-20, and joke often their real jobs start the minute they get home.
